CHIARA BERNARDELLI

ABOUT ME

I am a professional Makeup Artist with a degree in The Accademia Del Cinema in Bologna and other schools including the Kryolan also attended courses with Regina in Neverland where I specialized in Make-up Beauty.

I have worked with various photographers such as: Andrea Chemelli, Miro Ragazzini, Andrea Gobbi and the whole HeroEstudio team, I worked with Take Away studio and Peter Marvu for Vevo and Sony music Italy.

I collaborated with Carlo Montalvo for I Can Can Management and I monthly write for a column dedicated to the Make-up on Magazzino 26.

In my current role as an independent Makeup Artist.

I am knowledgeable about cosmetic application techniques of various kinds and can tailor each look to the setting lighting wardrobe facial features and hair color.

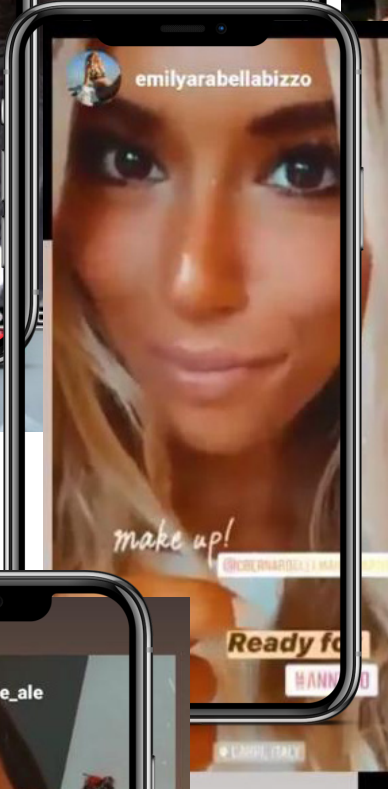

I have a strong approach to the world of beauty in addition to the good fortune of being born with an innate curiosity that led me to recognize and seek to understand my passions towards artistic direction. Stimulated by the determination and passion to grow my professionalism towards a personal goal to makeup artist world. I have worked as a makeup artist on many shooting sets and know how to apply cosmetics in a way that is enhance by the stage lights and cameras. As far as I can remember I've been fascinated by beauty Indeed since I was a child I loved to draw and fade the colors, then as a teenager I spent the hours in perfumery and makeup parents and friends. I gain inspiration through my experience indeed every opportunity is a new lesson for me.
